PARAGRAPH 1. The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside

For the purposes of such inspection and examination, the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel may be required by such immigration and naturalization official to muster all aliens employed thereon. The failure or refusal of the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to detain any such alien seaman on board until such seaman has been inspected and examined shall be deemed a violation of section 20 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

PAR. 2. Where, for any cause, the immigration and naturalization official in charge at any port of arrival finds that any alien employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof should be detained on such vessel or deported, he shall forthwith serve or cause to be served on the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel a notice in writing to detain or deport such alien. PAR. 2.
